

2014 4-H Scholarship Winners

Rachel Huang has been a 4-H member for over 9 years in the arts and crafts, archery, sign language, leadership and community service project areas. She has served as teen leader and club officer in many of her clubs. She has participated and taken leadership in club, county and state level events and served on the State 4-H Teen Action Council. She also took part in the National 4-H Citizenship Washington Focus program. She has been a 4-H camp counselor and County Ambassador and has been recognized for excellence in public speaking and leadership on the county and state level. She has been active participant and teen leader with the Middlesex County Fair for all of her 9 years.

Rachel VanDemark has been involved in the 4-H program for the past 9 years in the horse, horse science, leadership and community service project areas. She has participated in many state level horse science events and was selected to represent New Jersey at the National 4-H Horse Roundup in 2011. She was also named the 2012 NJ State Equestrienne of the Year. She has been recognized on the county and state level for her expertise and excellence in the areas of horse and horse science and has also received recognition for her excellence in public speaking. She has been a 4-H camp counselor and County Ambassador and a teen leader within the horse and leadership 4-H project areas. She also has been a very active and involved participant and teen leader with the Middlesex County Fair for all of her 9 years in 4-H.